Set in the midst of the grapevines of Napa Valley's tony St. Helena, the romantic 74-room Harvest Inn makes a perfect weekend getaway for couples looking to do not much more than take wine tours and then cozy up by a fireplace with a fine vintage. Of course, this is Napa, so there's much to experience, explore and eat, but it will be hard to pull yourself away from the lounging, hot-tubbing and drinking to be done at this luxurious little inn.

Harvest Inn

Jetsetter review

Flanked by the Mayacamas Mountains and offering enchanting views of the surrounding vineyards, Harvest Inn's 74 units are spread out among the four branches of the resort (Rose, Vineyard, Fountain and Manor House), which cover eight acres of well-manicured gardens.

The Great Room is just that, with romantic lighting and an English cobblestone hearth. Upon arrival, I was offered a welcome glass of wine from the property's own label. It was a delicious sip as I was toured around the property and escorted to my immense guestroom, which has a wood- or gas-burning fireplace and a gorgeous marble bathroom stocked with Aveda products; many also have a separate shower and soaking tub.

Each room is decorated in almost old-fashioned luxury: heavy oak wood furniture, superplush couches and leather club chairs with throw blankets. The rooms also feature fluffy robes, a flat-screen TV, and complimentary water and juice. Most have an outdoor patio, and some have private terraces and hot tubs for two.

If you're ready for some more wine, retreat to the Wine Bar to mingle and sample an array of vinos in front of a cozy cobblestone hearth. If you're up for it, book a treatment while you're here; they include a grapeseed facial and body scrub. The hotel's Harvest Country Kitchen provides an excellent breakfast, but you'll have to venture off-site for dinner. The concierge will be happy to suggest some favorite nearby haunts, and can get you into most places. (Just don't ask about French Laundry!)

What I liked

The room was a nice size and the bathroom was large. The grounds of the hotel are beautiful. The central lobby was also beautiful.

What I disliked

The only real complaint is that for the 3 hosted breakfasts we had there the food offered was exactly the same, no more, no less. The same quiche, oatmeal, baked goods, fruit selection. At least change the quiche selection

What I liked

The location is perfect. Breakfast was awesome!

What I disliked

Room wasn't ready when we checked in. Pillows were on the chair

What I liked

wine reception in the evening, wood burning fireplace, comfortable rooms, robes etc.

What I disliked

Breakfast was very mediocre. Robes but no slippers in the room (we ordered some). The jacuzzi although open 24 hours, pumps were not functional when we went (grr...). Bottle of wine (as promised on Jetsetter) was more like "half" bottle of wine ;-)

What I liked

The people at the front desk and the Concierge were extremely helpful and accomodating. Our room looked over the vineyards and had a fireplace. It was a wonderful experience.

What I liked

The location was perfect, the rooms were nice (the bathrooms were especially large and luxurious), the free breakfast was right overlooking the vineyard and perfect for starting a day of wine tasting.

What I disliked

The rooms are slightly small and the fireplaces are not that large or warm.

What I liked

The bed and the fire place in the room

What I disliked

The wine and cheese in the early evening was nice, but if you were not there at the start, that was not much of a selection. This was not due to the establishment, but the other guests who took way too much food on their plates.

What I liked

Great rooms! Nice tub and great view from the breakfast room

What I disliked

The bottle of wine i was promised when booking was actually a half bottle, and they do not tell you

What I liked

Extremely friendly and helpful staff. The Italian gentleman particularly was very accommodating. The room had a very nice bathroom with beautiful slate floor and jacuzzi tub.

What I disliked

The complimentary breakfast wasn't so good for a person with a gluten allergy. It would have been nice if they had just eggs, rather than a quiche. But that's just being picky.
